THAT CONTRADICTION BETWEEN TIMES

PART 3: MORE ON PROPHETIC & LITERAL TIME FROM SPIRIT OF PROPHECY, ELLEN G. WHITE

by Russell Friend

We have just seen in Daniel 12 and Revelation 10 that it is Prophetic Time which should be no longer. That to prophesy again is speaking about prophesying in Literal Day for a Day Time. For those who are confused, or confirmed against Literal Time, by some of Ellen Whites statements about prophetic time being no more after the 2300 years, ending in 1844, we read from a few of her statements:

"Jesus did not come to the earth as the waiting, joyful company expected, to cleanse the sanctuary by purifying the earth by fire. I saw that they were correct in their reckoning of the prophetic periods; PROPHETIC TIME

CLOSED IN 1844, and Jesus entered the most holy place to cleanse the sanctuary at the ending of the days." (Early Writings, page 243.2). Here EG White agrees with Revelation 10 that it is the long ages of Prophetic Time which ended when the 2300 day/year prophecy ended in 1844.

"I was shown the grievous disappointment of the people of God that they did not see Jesus at the expected time. They knew not why their Saviour did not come; for THEY COULD SEE NO EVIDENCE THAT PROPHETIC TIME HAD NOT ENDED. Said the angel, "Has God's word failed? Has God failed to fulfill His promises? No; He has fulfilled all that He promised. Jesus has risen up and shut the door of the holy place of the heavenly sanctuary and has opened a door into the most holy place and entered in to cleanse the sanctuary. All who wait patiently shall understand the mystery. Man has erred; but there has been no failure on the part of God. All was accomplished that God promised; but man erroneously believed the earth to be the sanctuary to be cleansed at the end of the prophetic periods. It is man's expectation, not the promise of God, that has failed." {Early Writings, page 250.1} Here her reference is to Prophetic Time.

Over and over we have heard this quote in part! "THE PEOPLE WILL NOT HAVE ANOTHER MESSAGE UPON DEFINITE TIME. After this period of time [Revelation 10:4-6], reaching from 1842 to 1844, THERE CAN BE NO DEFINITE TRACING OF THE PROPHETIC TIME. The longest reckoning reaches to the autumn of 1844."—The S.D.A. Bible Commentary

7:971 (1900). {Last Day Events, page 36.2} Here we see "The people will not have another message upon definite time," as she defines it a few words forward, is speaking about the Long Ages of Prophetic Time: nothing is here given to us to construe that she is speaking about no message upon Literal Time.

". . . The First-day Adventists have often set the time, and notwithstanding the repeated failures, they have gathered courage to set new times. God has not led them in this. Many of them have denied the prophetic time and the fulfillment of prophecy, because the time passed in 1844, and did not bring the expected event. THEY REJECTED THE TRUE PROPHETIC TIME, AND THE ENEMY HAS BROUGHT STRONG DELUSIONS UPON THEM that they should believe a lie. I have borne the testimony SINCE THE PASSING OF THE TIME IN 1844, THAT THERE SHOULD BE NO DEFINITE TIME SET BY WHICH TO TEST GOD'S PEOPLE. THE GREAT TEST ON TIME WAS IN 1843 AND 1844; AND ALL WHO HAVE SET TIME SINCE THIS GREAT PERIOD MARKED IN PROPHECY, WERE DECEIVING AND BEING DECEIVED." {Life

Sketches Of James White And Ellen G White 88 221.1}. Literal time is not a test: it is encouragement; it is a sign and a warning for the persecuted Saints to hold on until the 3 1/2 years is up; it tells us that Judgment in favor of the saints is coming, that Michael is about to stand up for His down-trodden holy people; then comes the destruction of the persecuting Papal Power.

WHAT SHE SAYS ABOUT LITERAL TIME

We see from these statements, it is the long ages of prophetic time which the angel of Revelation 10 is speaking. So what of Daniel 12 and the Time, Times and an Half which the Man in linen declares; and the other 2 time prophecies in this last Chapter?

"Let us read and study the twelfth chapter of Daniel. IT IS A WARNING WE SHALL ALL NEED TO UNDERSTAND BEFORE THE TIME OF THE END." Letter 161, July 30, 1903. Notice, she puts this statement in a future context. Some of the verses in Daniel 12 include time given in literal time.

"Let all who would understand the meaning of these things read the eleventh chapter of Revelation. Read EVERY VERSE, and learn THE THINGS THAT ARE YET TO TAKE PLACE IN THE CITIES. Read also the scenes portrayed in the eighteenth chapter of the same Book." MR 1518 May 10, 1906 White EG 1992. Again, she puts Revelation 11 in a future context. Some of these verses speak of Time given in Literal Time.

"Let us give more time to the study of the Bible. We do not understand the word as we should. The book of Revelation opens with an injunction to us to understand the instruction that it contains. . . . when we as a people understand what this book means to us, there will be seen among us a great revival." Testimonies To Ministers page 113.2

Please notice the context of the future Ellen White puts Daniel 12:7-10 which includes the Time, Times and an Half: "Daniel writes: "I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and swore by him that liveth forever that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things? And He said, Go thy way, Daniel: for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end. Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand." {BTS February 1, 1903, par. 2}

This world is a theatre. The actors, the inhabitants of the world, ARE PREPARING TO ACT THEIR PART IN THE LAST GREAT DRAMA." [The context is future]"God is lost sight of. There is no unity of purpose, except as parties of men confederate to gain their ends. GOD IS LOOKING ON. HIS PERPOSES IN REGARD TO HIS REBELLIOUS SUBJECTS WILL BE FULFILLED. The world has not been given into the hands of men, though God is permitting the elements of confusion and disorder to bear sway for a season. A POWER FROM BENEATH IS WORKING TO BRING ABOUT THE LAST SCENES IN THE DRAMA,—SATAN IS COMING AS CHRIST, and working with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in those who are binding themselves together in secret societies. Those who are yielding to the passion for confederation are working out the plans of the enemy. The cause will be followed by the effect. {BTS February 1, 1903, par. 3}

Transgression has almost reached its limit. Confusion fills the world, and a great terror is soon to come upon human beings. And the end is very near. We who know the truth should be preparing for what is soon to break upon the world as an overwhelming surprise." {BTS February 1, 1903, par. 4}

"In the last days Satan will appear as an angel of light, with great power and heavenly glory, and claim to be the Lord of the whole earth. He will declare that the Sabbath has been changed from the seventh to the first day of the week; and as lord of the first day of the week he will present this spurious sabbath as a test of loyalty to him. Then will take place the final fulfillment of the Revelator's prophecy. [Revelation 13:4-18, quoted.] {19MR 282.1}

[Let us go back to verse 1, and on to better see the context of] Revelation 13:1 "And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. [Was this before 1798 or after? Before the deadly wound, or after? From a historical view this appears to be before 1798 and then the deadly wound was given.] 2 And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority. [Again let us ask ourselves: was this before 1798 or after? Before the deadly wound or after? It still seems to be before the 1798 wound.] 3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast." [Still again we ask: is the context of verse 3 before 1798 or after? We should recognize at this point, it is after 1798, and after the deadly Papal wound is healed. So, what comes after verse 3 must be in the context of being after the 1798 deadly wound is healed.]

Revelation 13:4 "And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him? [Remember this verse is after the deadly wound is healed.] 5 And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; AND POWER WAS GIVEN UNTO HIM TO CONTINUE FOURTY AND TWO MONTHS. 6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven. 7 And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations. 8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. 9 If any man have an ear, let him hear. 10 He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints." [Can we see any agreement between Daniel 7, Daniel 12:6&7 and the first verses of Revelation 13? Yes! They both place the 42 months in the period after the deadly 1798 wound and the Judgment of the Papal Power, as seen in verse 10 of Revelation 13.] "11 And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon. 12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. 13 And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men, 14 And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live. 15 And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed. 16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: 17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. 18 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six."

Prophetic Time ended with the fulfillment of the longest Time prophecy of the 2300 day/years. After that ending of Prophetic Time, Literal Time came into effect as a warning that what was in the Papal past in long ages, will be again in the shorter Literal Time they were given because God does not lie, and what goes out of His mouth will accomplish His intention.

UNDERSTANDING THE TIMES

By Ted Schultz

When we see Rome involved in various movements, such as the environmental movement, we stand somewhat bemused. Rome has also put itself in the position of the champion for the working class, the poor and disadvantaged. It speaks emphatically against conflict, hatred, brutal atrocities and ideological extremism. It speaks often of the common good, promoting the well-being of individuals, of hope and healing and of peace and justice. It speaks of safeguarding religious freedom, intellectual freedom and individual freedoms. It speaks of having respect for people's differences and their convictions of conscience.

The pope, in his speech to the Joint Session of Congress on September 24, 2015, spoke on these very points. So is there anything wrong with the stand the pope has taken on these issues? Of course not. All the above things enumerated are matters that God has given us in the book of the "Building a future of freedom requires love of the common good and cooperation in a spirit of subsidiarity and solidarity."

– Pope Francis, Address to US Congress, 24 September 2015.

www.social-spirituality.net

law. It is interesting to note that the pope in fact mentioned Moses several times in his opening remarks.

The world would be a much better place if everyone sought the well-being of his fellow man. If no one was taking advantage of anyone there would be no stealing or hurting anyone in any way. Everyone would respect the freedoms of the other; yet, in that respect, no one would exploit their own personal freedoms to the detriment of others. The pope before Congress spoke of the golden rule saying; “This Rule points us in a clear direction. Let us treat others with the same passion and compassion with which we want to be treated.”

So why is there the least concern of the pope coming to America and speaking to Congress? May I offer a few possibilities as to why those concerns exist. The historical background of the papacy does linger in the minds of some and it is not a picture that encourages confidence in the words of the papacy’s lead figure. Many however see the modern papacy not at all in the light of its past barbarisms, which leaves us with a crucial question: Has Rome changed?

There is even within the world of Adventism those who believe that Rome has indeed changed. Many think that it is a new day in papal/protestant relations and that the pope is setting a worthy example of walking the Christian walk in this world. Indeed, the attitude exists that we should not concern ourselves in the least with Rome or the Papacy. “Rome will take care of itself” is the rejoinder. Is this heaven’s view of the matter? If God’s people are to remain silent in regard to the pope and the papacy it must be a new thing. The servant of the Lord through her long years of ministry made mention of these things to the very end of her life. In the search engine we find Ellen White mentioning the pope 341 times. Variant forms of pope such as popes, pope’s, popery, papacy, papist, papists yield an additional 1,298 mentions. Also, Romanism is mentioned 123 times. The Roman Church is mentioned 110 times. Roman Catholicism and Roman Catholic Church are mentioned 34 times. Rome is mentioned 896 times in a variety of applications. If we are not to mention the pope, the papacy or Romanism, we can only conclude that it must be a new thing of which Ellen White knew nothing about for she refers to the subject thousands of times throughout her writings and does not give a positive view of things having to do with the pope or the papacy.

We are to preach the everlasting gospel. The everlasting gospel in the setting of the three angel’s messages requires a call to come out of Babylon. This call will culminate in the latter rain and the loud cry. If these messages are to be given with great power, then it is plain that it must be made very clear what Babylon is. Incidentally, the Spirit of Prophecy mentions Babylon 1,083 times. One such statement is found in The Great Controversy on page 606. “The sins of Babylon will be laid open. The fearful results of enforcing the observances of the church by civil authority, the inroads of spiritualism, the stealthy but rapid progress of the papal power—all will be unmasked.” So who is it that will do this unmasking? The answer is given on the same page. “Thus the message of the third angel will be proclaimed. As the time comes for it to be given with greatest power, the Lord will work through humble instruments, leading the minds of those who consecrate themselves to His service. The laborers will be qualified rather by the unction of His Spirit than by the training of literary institutions. Men of faith and prayer will be constrained to go forth with holy zeal, declaring the words which God gives them.”

On the next page it tells us what the results will be when this message is given. “The power attending the message will only madden those who oppose it. The clergy will put forth almost superhuman efforts to shut away the light lest it shine upon their flocks. By every means at their command they will endeavor to suppress the discussion of these vital questions. The church appeals to the strong arm of civil power, and, in this work, papists and Protestants unite. As the movement for Sunday enforcement becomes more bold and decided, the law will be invoked against commandment keepers. They will be threatened with fines and imprisonment, and some will be offered positions of influence, and other rewards and advantages, as inducements to renounce their faith. But their steadfast answer is:

‘Show us from the word of God our error’—the same plea that was made by Luther under similar circumstances.”

If God’s people are to be brought to the position that they will say “show us from the word of God our error”, we may be wanting to show from the word of God every position we now hold, which brings us to our present question under consideration. Has Rome changed? If we allow the Bible to answer that question we find that it does not change. Papal Rome continues its dreadful career until it is thrown into the lake of fire. Revelation 19: 20. “And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that received the mark of the beast, and them that worshiped his image. These both were cast alive into the lake of fire burning with brimstone.” This is a very tragic end foretold in prophecy. Do we believe it? Where are the leaders of the nations in their understanding of this prophecy? Where was the U.S. Congress on this prophecy when they invited the pope to speak to them? When the pope spoke to them he was repeatedly interrupted with applause. That the pope was even invited to speak gives us the answer as to what understanding Congress has of the prophecies. That they gave applause to the pope emphasizes who it is that has changed. “The time was when Protestants placed a high value upon liberty of conscience which had been so dearly purchased. They taught their children to abhor popery and held that to seek harmony with Rome would be disloyalty to God. But how different are the sentiments now expressed!” Ibid. p. 563. Was inviting the pope to speak an act of abhorrence of popery or clear evidence of a complete lack of it? Is giving him applause repeatedly throughout his speech an act of abhorrence? We think not. We can only wonder how many who were listening to the pope’s speech were themselves emissaries of Rome. Was not the act of Congress in inviting the pope to speak disloyalty to God? Protestant America? Really?! Who was protesting that day when the pope spoke?

This event reminds us of the words of Charles Chiniquy when he wrote “Americans! You are sleeping on a Volcano, and you do not suspect it! You are pressing on your bosom a viper which will bite you to death, and you do not know it. . . .Rome is the sworn, the most implacable, the absolutely irreconcilable and deadly enemy of your schools, your institutions, your dearly bought rights and liberties. . . .It is ignorance which paralyzes the arm of the Church of Christ, and makes the glorious word “Protestant” senseless, almost a dead and ridiculous word. For who does really protest Rome, to-day? Where are those who sound the trumpet of alarm? Fifty Years In The Church Of Rome, dedication, original edition.

Is the pope antichrist still or has that changed? The present pope is a Jesuit. That statement is not pope bashing it is a simple statement of fact. Read the Jesuit oath and ask yourself if that gives a picture of one who is a follower of Christ. This present Jesuit pope knows exactly what he is doing when he refers to the “common good.” The common good infers a majority if not the entire world. It is a way for Rome to displace a constitutional republic. Rome hates the U.S. Constitution. It always has. The constitution gives protection to the good of the not-so-common minorities. Minorities like those who keep holy the Seventh-day Sabbath of creation in loyalty to the God of heaven and His fourth commandment instead of the pope’s day. And what about minorities such as those who observe the Lord’s appointed festivals instead of the feasts of Rome’s devising? Have we forgotten the Quartodeciman controversy? Seventh-day Adventists demonstrate by their deep involvement in Easter sun-rise services that they do not understand the history of past controversies relating to the law of God and how the revival of these controversies are on the point of realization.

“The Lord is willing to reveal to you wondrous things out of his law. Wait before him with humility of heart. Pray most earnestly for an understanding of the times in which we live, for fuller conception of his purpose, and for increased efficiency in soul-saving. Often in the night-season I am bidden to urge our brethren in responsible positions to make earnest effort to follow on to know the Lord more perfectly. When our workers realize as they should the importance of the times in which we live, there will be seen a determined purpose to be on the Lord’s side, and they will become in truth laborers together with God. When they consecrate heart and soul to the service of God, they will find that an experience deeper than any they have yet obtained is essential if they would triumph over sin.

“It will be well for us to consider what is soon to come upon the earth. This is no time for trifling or self-seeking. If the times in which we are living fail to impress our minds seriously, what can reach us? Do not the Scriptures call for a more pure and holy work than we have yet seen?” Review and Herald, May, 29, 1913.

AS IT WAS IN THE DAYS OF NOAH....

Celebrities call for Georgia boycott over abortion bill.

Georgia State Sen. Nikema Williams (D) says she opposes Georgia's controversial "heartbeat" abortion bill that would bar women from terminating their pregnancies after a fetal heartbeat is first detected, which can be as early as six weeks, and before many women realize they are pregnant.

<https://www.wkyufm.org/post/here-s-rundown-kentucky-s-new-anti-abortion-laws-and-what-s-next> (Pro Life)

Kentucky’s Republican-controlled legislature approved four anti-abortion measures this session, all of which were signed into law by Republican Gov. Matt Bevin. Bevin has signed several anti-abortion bills since he became governor in 2015 with nearly all of them struck down either temporarily or permanently in federal court.

I find it so sad how people are fighting against each other for the life of an innocent child. Some for the right to make laws that do not protect a child. Making evil good and good evil. Some are trying to do the right thing and being struck down. What a wicked world we live in.

THE STRONG PRO-LIFE POSITION OF OUR ADVENTIST PIONEERS

Most Adventists are aware that our pioneers were definitely pro-life, as evidenced by the statements made by some of the leaders of the early Adventist movement.[2] A classic example is a paragraph taken from an article authored by a pro-lifer that James White, the founder of our publishing work, included in his book Solemn Appeal, in which he condemned the practice of abortion in the strongest terms: “Few are aware of the fearful extent to which this nefarious business, this worse-than-devilish practice, is carried on in all classes of society! Many a woman determines that she will not become a mother, and subjects herself to the vilest treatment, committing the basest crime to carry out her purpose. And many a man, who has as many children as he can support, instead of restraining his passions, aids in the destruction of the babes he has begotten. The sin lies at the door of both parents in equal measure; for the father, although he may not always aid in the murder, is always accessory to it, in that he induces, and sometimes even forces upon the mother the condition which he knows will lead to the commission of the crime.”[3]

How Did Adventists Manage to Jump Over the Life Fence? The hard question is: How did a pro-life church manage to jump over the life fence into the pro-choice/pro-abortion camp? A fence so high that even Rome did not dare to scale it! And how did we dare to profit from the violation of the sixth commandment of the Decalogue, written by God’s own hand on two tables of stone, and the violation of our own Guidelines on Abortion? <https://atoday.org/ultimate-form-child-abuse/>

EVILNESS

<https://www.catholicworldreport.com/2019/02/27/pope-francis-evils-days-are-numbered/> Vatican City, Feb 27, 2019 / 03:11 am (CNA).- Pope Francis said Wednesday that evil is limited compared to the expanding force of God’s holiness in the world. “Evil’s days are numbered. Evil is not eternal,” Pope Francis said in a departure from his prepared remarks in St. Peter’s Square Feb. 27. “God’s holiness is an expanding force, and we beg that it quickly shatters barriers of our world,” he said, adding that this holiness “spreads in concentric circles, like when throwing a stone into a pond.” Pope Francis explained that “prayer drives away all fear. The Father loves us, the Son raises his arms side by side with ours, the Spirit works in secret for the redemption of the world.” “One thing is certain: it is evil that is afraid,” the pope said.

I do not agree with the pope’s words. He doesn’t even mention Christ’s soon return to save the world from evil. Evil will not go away until that great day when He comes for His children. Evil is not afraid, evil thinks it will win. To me, this is giving people the idea that given time, all will be okay in the world. However, it is only to get worse before He comes to cleanse the world of evil! Be ready! Study and pray and be ready! Hope to see you here this month for Passover and Unleavened Bread!
